Association Meeting at Kipahulu.

The semi-annual meeting of the Protestant churches of Maui, Lanai and Molokai was held at Kipahulu the past two weeks. The churches were well represented by their pastors and delegates from the Sunday Schools and societies of Christian Endeavor.

The opening was held Sunday morning, March 18, with a sermon by Rev. Samuel Kapu, who is now teaching at Lahainaluna Seminary, but is also pastor emeritus of the Waihee Church, Lahaina. In the afternoon of Sunday the Lord's Supper was observed, which was followed by three addresses to the members of the society of Christian Endeavor. Rev. Doremus Seudder, D.D., spoke on "The Christian Endeavor Society—the right hand of the pastor." Rev. Rowland B. Dodge on "The Origin and Development of the Christian Endeavor Movement," and Rev. Enoch S. Timoteo on the "Work of Christian Endeavor in the Islands."

On Monday the roll of the churches was made up, and the next few days were devoted to business. Reports were read from the churches, Sunday Schools and societies of Christian Endeavor, and committees were appointed to look after the various interests of the churches. Hon. Samuel E. Kaine was elected auditor of the accounts of Rev. R. B. Dodge, who has charge of the repairs of the churches and parsonages and pays the salaries of the ministers through the Maui Aid Association.

The Association sanctioned the call of the Waihee Church, Lahaina, to Rev. W. D. K. White for a term of five years, and have appointed a committee to install him next Sunday, April 1. Rev. John K. Hibbs was called for two years to Kaunapali, and Rev. Joseph P. Iouina begins work at Keokea, Kula, on April 1.

Several events of special interest took place during the week. On Monday evening, Rev. Enoch S. Timoteo gave a stirring address upon "The Early Missions in the Islands." On Saturday morning the Association planted a tree near the old coral meeting house, and in the evening the visitors listened to an excellent concert in the old church. On Sunday the usual Sunday School convention was held. A large sum of money was raised for the expenses of the Kipahulu church, $60.00 of which paid an outstanding debt to the pastor, and $50.00 was deposited in the Wailuku-Saving's Bank toward the much needed repairs on the parsonage.

Many thanks are due Manager Haneberg for his generous hospitality and to the Kipahulu Church people for the entertainment they gave the pastors and delegates from all parts of the Islands.

Mr. Peter N. Kahokuoluna was moderator of the Association and Rev. W. D. K. White, scribe. Besides the already mentioned, Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Golek, Mrs. E. S. Timoteo, and Mr. John Martin of Honolulu were present.

MARRIED.

LEE YEE—LAU SEE—By Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, March 25, at the Chinese Church, Mr. Lee Yee of Wailuku to Miss Lau See of Honolulu.

The Duke of Durham.

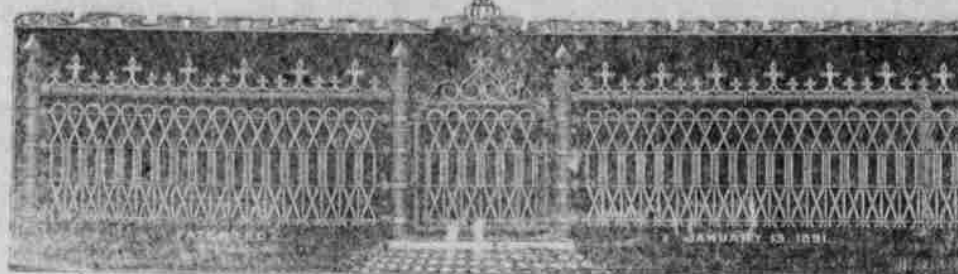

The late Mr. Washington Duke, of Durham, North Carolina, at home known as "Uncle Wash," who manufactured tobacco products so extensively for a quarter of a century, used to tell a quaint little story on himself. "The first time I traveled abroad," he said, "I visited Brussels, and went to see all its sights. In one of the public buildings I found an ordinary looking armchair carefully rail-d off and with a chain across its front. Being tired with a hard morning of tramping, I stepped over the fence, let down the chain, and, with a big sigh of relief, dropped into this chair, the only one I had seen in the building. A guard in livery and buttons was up on me at once.

"No sitting in that chair!" he blustered. "See the card on the back? The Duke of Wellington once occupied that chair!"

"Well, and what of it?" I returned, cool as a cucumber. "I'm Duke of Durham, and alive at that!"

"This settled the matter; down to the floor went that dunkey, brushing the dust from my heavy American shoes with his handkerchief of real European linen. A way up English title catches them every time. I had my rest out in that solid old chair of the Waterloo hero."—Saturday Even-
